Dear Lutheran Settlement House Friends and Supporters,

This year amid divisive politics and uncertainty about the future, we at Lutheran Settlement House recognized that being an inclusive and accessible resource to our community is more important now than ever.

For Lutheran Settlement House (LSH), this meant taking a modern approach to our settlement house roots. Settlement Houses are where social work got its start in the U.S. – a community based “one stop shop” that responded to the various needs of newly arrived immigrants. We remain a multi-service agency embedded in our community, but have adapted this model to expand our reach and evolve with the changing needs of Philadelphia.

Our Annual Report this year highlights the many ways we focused on bringing our services further into the community. From a mobile Housing Stabilization Specialist to help people avoid homelessness, to community conversations throughout the city addressing ways that toxic masculinity and domestic violence are inextricably linked, we expanded our footprint and brought a variety of vital resources to new neighborhoods and communities.

We firmly believe that Philadelphia is strongest when our most vulnerable are supported and receive the help they need. This work wouldn’t be possible without your partnership.

Thank you again for your generous support and for being a part of the Lutheran Settlement House family.

Sincerely,

Christine Stutman    Kara Finck
Executive Director    Board President
Men Can seeks to engage men as a part of efforts to end intimate partner violence within the Philadelphia community, culminating in our annual Men Can rally.

“To date, counseling has allowed me to find myself again.”

Jane Addams Place provides food, shelter, housing placement, and job and life skills trainings in order to help families achieve self-sufficiency.

With the support of OHS and Council President Darrell Clarke’s office, we successfully relocated our homeless shelter to a safer, more modern site. The new location will enhance our services, allow families to heal and rebuild with dignity, and brings our resources and support to a new Philadelphia neighborhood. Thank you to the donors, city officials, board members, and staff who helped make this possible.

- 62 adults and 128 children served
- Avg. length of stay: 142 days = 4.7 months
- 96 instances of school advocacy
- 1,536 total volunteer hours
- 30 Bright Spaces volunteers
- 1,281 Bright Spaces volunteer hours
- 1,337 hours of availability for Bright Spaces

LSH helped pilot a new Prevention and Diversion program out of Philadelphia’s Office of Homeless Services this year, helping to expand our work in the housing and homelessness field.

Adult Education: • 93% of learners in tutoring program improved by at least one grade level

Job Readiness: • 155 individuals served through Job Search Boot Camps, resume and interview support, and customer service training

Digital Literacy: • 1,400+ community member visits to our KEYSPO computer lab
Hungry to Healthy runs a local food pantry that provides healthy food options to low-income families in Philadelphia. Hungry to Healthy staff also run cooking classes for older adults in our Senior Center, teaching them easy to cook healthy meals at home.

CARES Program provides resources, advocacy and support groups to caregivers of elderly adults.

- 11,256 meals served
- 61 individuals attended digital literacy computer classes
- 14 individuals participated in health coaching through Enhanced Wellness

CARES Program

- 54 caregivers seen for individual intensive counseling
- 100% of enrolled caregivers would recommend the CAREs program to another program
- 25 caregiver support groups held
- 88% of caregivers attended more than one support group

A new grant from the Pennsylvania Department of Aging brought a nurse on site to our Senior Center for the first time in its history. Enhanced Wellness is a health coaching initiative aimed at helping older adults live healthy at home for longer.

The Senior Center provides free meals daily, and also offers classes, activities, and trips which keep members connected to their community and living independently in their homes.

- 72,000+ pounds of food distributed
- 380 hours of cooking and nutrition classes
- 3,438 visits to the food pantry
- 210 turkeys distributed at Thanksgiving

A new partnership with Greensgrow Farms made even more healthy food available at our Fishtown site. Greensgrow hosts a regular farmer’s market on our deck, making fresh foods more easily accessible for all LSH clients. The farmers market accepts SNAP and vouchers for seniors.

“I would not be able to survive without the food pantry… I need the applesauce I get here for medication. I love the Tuesday and Friday produce from Philabundance. If it wasn't for LSH, I wouldn't get fresh fruit.”
